

MAY 2008 Hike List

DATE	EVENT	TIME	LOCATION	LEADER	PHONE
Saturday, May 3	Meet at the Garland Visitor Center for a 3-4 hour uphill hike to Snively's Ridge and return. Elevation gain: approximately 1,600 ft. Distance: approximately 4.5 miles Bring lunch and water.	9:00 a.m.	Garland Visitor Center	Paulette Struckman	644-0426
Sunday, May 4	Meet at the Garland Visitor Center to caravan to the Kahn Ranch Addition for a 2-3 hour hike on the Hitchcock Loop. Elevation gain: approximately 1,100 ft. Distance: approximately 3.7 miles.	9:00 a.m.	Garland Visitor Center	Gordon Williams & Virginia Bloomer	372-6374; 521-3947
Sunday, May 4	Meet at the Park & Ride lot adjacent to the Black Bear Diner at the corner of Rio Rd. & Hwy 1 for a 45-minute caravan to the Mill Creek Preserve. The 3-4 hour hike through redwoods and tan oaks, past a running waterfall, includes a stop for lunch on a sunny knoll with spectacular views of the ocean.	10:00 a.m.	Black Bear Diner for caravan to Mill Creek	Cath Farrant	372-7427
Saturday, May 10	Meet at the Garland Visitor Center for a 1-2 hour wildflower walk around some of the lower-level trails, including Waterfall, Cliff, Mesa, and Lupine. Elevation gain: 300-600 ft., depending on route. Distance: approximately 3 miles.	12:30 p.m.	Garland Visitor Center	Andrea Weiss	236-7690
Sunday, May 11	NO HIKE
Saturday, May 17	Meet at the East Garzas Rd. trailhead for a 4-hour hike up the Veeder, East Ridge, and Saddle trails to Vasquez Knob, then back down by way of Spring and the Gabilan trails. Elevation gain: approximately 1,800 ft. Distance: approximately 5 miles.	9:00 a.m.	East Garzas Trailhead	Bruce Keel	659-4782
Sunday, May 18	NO HIKE
Saturday, May 24	Meet at the East Garzas Rd. trailhead for a 3-hour hike up the Veeder trail to Veeder Pond, down East Ridge, and back along the Terrace trail, to see some of the best wildflowers in the park. Elevation gain: approximately 1,400 ft. Distance: approximately 3.8 miles. Bring snack and water.	9:00 a.m.	East Garzas Trailhead	Max Yeaman	659-5964
Sunday, May 25	Meet at the Palo Corona entrance ¼ mile south of Rio Road on the left for a 5-hour hike up to Inspiration Point , over a ridge and down to San Jose Creek for lunch in a Redwood grove. Elevation change: approximately 1,575 feet (both ways) Distance: approximately 8 miles. Bring lunch & water.	9:00 a.m.	Palo Corona Regional Park	Gordon Williams & Virginia Bloomer	372-6374; 521-3947
Saturday, May 31	Meet at the Garland Visitor Center for a 1-2 hour wildflower walk around some of the lower-level trails, including Waterfall, Cliff, Mesa, and Lupine. Elevation gain: 300-600 ft., depending on route. Distance: approximately 3 miles.	9:00 a.m.	Garland Visitor Center	Gerrie Mejia	373-4543